

Bulletin #2013-004     21 – December - 2012

Subject:
2013 Rally America Licenses

Overview:

There are no changes to the price of competition licenses for 2013.

The purpose of this Bulletin is to explain changes in the licensing process for 2013.

USAC will be providing General Liability and Participant Accident insurance to Rally America for 2013.

License holders will receive a Rally America competition license as well as a USAC membership card.

Each license holder must sign the waiver and media releases at their first event and will receive their Rally America license card. After that, the license holder does not have to sign the waiver at any more events during 2013.

Service crew members must also purchase a USAC membership. The single event cost is $5. National crew members may purchase a Season Membership for $150 and regional crew members may purchase a Season Membership for $75. Season USAC members sign the waiver and media releases at their first event and, then, receive a hard card and do not have to sign the waiver at any more events during 2013.

When a license holder renews or applies for a license, there will be a checkbox online which the license holder must check acknowledging that Rally America will pass certain personal information to USAC, Inc. for the purposes of renewing or establishing a USAC membership.

Questions regarding this bulletin received by Rally America from licensed Drivers and Co-Drivers will be answered in writing.
